Preliminary Correspondence of the Parties Interested.

The good people of Oregon and vi cinity have in store for them an important religious controversy, on a subject n which all believers in the Bible are deeply interested. The participants in the discussion, Rev. J. W. Caughlan. of Maryville, and Elder P. K. Dibble, of this city, are both clergymen of note and ability in their respective churches, and will not fail to draw immense audiences. But the correspondence below given will explain itself:

> CARD TO ELDER DIBBLE. OREGON, Mo., Jan. 22d, 1876.

ELDER P. K. DIBBLE: Dear Sir and Bro.: On invitation of the Pastor and membership of the M. E. Church of this place, the Rev. J. W. Caughlan of Maryville, Mo., came here and deliver-ed three discourses on the following subjects: 1st, Immersion not Scripture Baptism. 2d, Justification by Faith only. 3d, The Office and Work of the Holy Spirit. In those discourses no allusion was made to you or the organization of which you are a member. At the conclusion of the last sermon ou announced that you would "re-riew" and "criticise" the discourses. You have done so in a series of lectures which you have attacked Mr Caughlan personally, and in several instances have misrepresented him. As we as a Church hold the doctrines adwe as a Church hold the doctrines advocated by Mr. Caughlan to be taught in the word of God, and as you in your discourses have pronounced them unscriptural, therefore, that the people may be able to judge whether the doctrines half by he age founded on School trines held by us are founded on Scrip ture or not, we would ask you to meet Mr. Caughian at such time and place Mr. Caughtan at such time that as you and he may agree upon, and discuss with him the following propositions: 1st. "Effusion considered only as to the manner of administering, is Scripture baptism." 2d, "Faith in the merits of Christ is the one condition of pardon to the sinner." 3d. "In con-version and sanctification there is an superior to the word of Truth."

Caughlan to affirm and you to deny We would also suggest that you affirm the tollowing proposition:

REPLY TO CARD. On Thursday evening last, after 9 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Edmonds, in company with Dr. Henderson, came to my house and gave me a verbal challenge to engage in a debate with Mr. Canghlan. to engage in a debate with Mr. Caugh-lau. At the same time he presented the propositions contained in the above card. Mr. E. requested me to enter in-ter into correspondence with Mr. C. at once. I objected, that as I had no written communication from him, it would be a singular proceeding for the challenged party to commence the cor-respondence. Mr. E. said it was the M. E. January 21, 1876. REV. J. W. CAUGHLAN: Dear Sir and Bro.: The M. E. Church of this place, through their pastor Rev. Mr. Edmonds, last evening informed me, that authorized by you, he would ask me, if I were willing to engage in a public eral discussion with you touch.

I answered that while I was not solicitous for notoriety as a debater, I should hold myself always ready to advocate or defend the truth, in any way that would best conduce to the advancement of the cause for which our Savior died. He then presented, as coming from you, the fol-

This you believe and practice, I do not believe it, therefore deny. REPLY TO MR. EDMOND'S LETTER OREGON, Mo., Jan. 26, 76. Rev. W. L.
